LYNGSOE RAINWEAR

KIDS COLLECTION

Children don't stop playing just because the weather changes. That's why their clothing needs to keep up.

This collection is designed to keep children dry and comfortable in rain, wind and cold. The focus is on durability, freedom of movement and functionality - so the clothing can handle both play and everyday wear.

The materials ensure high water-proof performance and long-lasting durability.

So children can keep playing, no matter the weather.
